

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

DECEMBER 15, 1817.

Mr. Daggett, from the committee to whom was referred the resolution authorizing the distribution of certain public documents, reported it with the following amendment:

Amend the resolution by striking out all the resolution after the word "passed," and in lieu thereof insert, "To the President of the United States, one set; to the Vice President of the United States, one set; to each of the heads of Department, to the Attorney General of the United States, to each of the Senators and Representatives of the Fifteenth Congress, one set; to each branch of the Legislature of each state and territory, and one to each of the executives of the several states and territories; one set to each university and college in the United States; six sets to the Secretary of the Senate for the use of the Senate; and eighteen sets to the clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of that House; and the residue of the sets of the state papers and documents aforesaid, shall be deposited in the Library of Congress."
